

Revelation 19:11-20:15

The text – Revelation 19:11-20:15

1. Read Revelation 19:11-20:15. This section of Revelation is shaped by the words “I saw” which are found eight times between 19:11 and 20:12. As you read, summarise what John saw.
2. Most often in Revelation, Jesus is portrayed as a Lamb that had been slain. However, in 19:11-16, he is portrayed as the rider on a white horse. What do you learn about the names of this rider?
3. What happens to the “kings, generals, and the mighty, horses and their riders, all people, free and slave, small and great” in the vision of 19:17-21?
4. Describe what the angel does to the devil in 20:1-3.
5. Do you understand a 1,000 years to be a literal period of time, or a symbolic number signifying completeness, a full time, the time of God’s choosing?
6. Who is ruling the world in 20:4-6?
7. What is the final destiny of the devil in 20:7-10?
8. Revelation 20:11-15 envisions the final judgement. How many books are there? What is the difference between the books?

The Scriptures – Revelation 19:11-20:15

9. Psalm 2:7-12. What similarities do you see between this portion of Psalm 2 and Revelation 19:15-16?
10. Many of the images in Revelation 19:17-21 come from Ezekiel 39:1-6. Read this passage from Ezekiel and discuss it briefly.
11. Read the words of Jesus in John 12:31-33. What similarities do you note between these words and the description of what happens to Satan in Revelation 20:1-3?
12. Paul writes about God restraining evil and lawlessness in 2 Thessalonians 2:5-12. Read this passage and discuss it in the light of what you have read in Revelation 20:1-3.
13. Ezekiel prophesies about Gog and Magog in Ezekiel 38:1-6 and following. Read the opening verses of Ezekiel 38. Who do you understand Gog and Magog to be?

Our lives – walking the way of Jesus in response to Revelation 19:11-20:15

14. How does the reality of God’s judgement impact your life?
15. How has this study in Revelation challenged you? What will you do as a result?
16. Read the words of Jude 24-25 as you finish this study and discussion. Make them the basis for prayer in the week to come.
